Note: All work should be submitted on loose pages only.

Q.1.   "Time and Tide waits for none"– write a paragraph on the above topic in about 100-120 words.

Q.2.   Write an application to the Principal to grant you four days leave of illness.

Q.3.   Fill in the blanks with A, An and The. Put 'X' if no article is required.

Before _____ battle began _____ soldier of _____ rival army came riding on _____ white horse.

On _____ seeing him, Capt. Smith told his men _____ not to fire till the man could reach them.

Q.4.   Rewrite the following passage using the simple past or past perfect tense of the verb given.

Prof. Amartya Sen, who _____ (win) the noble prize for economic science in 1998 _____ (want) to become an economist. When he _____ (join) the Presidency college in Kolkata for higher studies. He _____ (decide) to study economics. As a boy of ten, he _____ (see) a large number of people during the Bengal famine & this money _____ (drive) him to understand the cause of poverty and starvation.

Q.5.   Punctuate the given passage .
mr. Khanna heaved a sigh of relief. Thank you very much mr. Singh. i hope my favourite motorcycle will be ready by evening he said.

Q.6.   Do as directed.

1)   She said, "I am washing clothes." (Indirect Speech)

2)   Neeru said, "My dog died last week." (Change into Indirect Speech)

3)   Who teaches you Maths? (Change to Passive)

4) Was a book being read by him? (Change to Active)

5)   The road to Delhi was blocked. (Interrogative)

6)   A nurse needs to have confidence in herself. (Change to Plural)

7) Ravi _____ (keep) his books in his cupboard. (Simple Past Tense)

8)   Before you reach his house, he _____ (leave) that place. (Future Perfect)

9)   The broken chair kept outside _____ (be) repaired. (Suitable Verb)

10) They _____ give us a 10% discount. (Suitable Modal)

11) _____ I borrow your dictionary. (Suitable Modal)

12) I have been living in this house _____ 1960. (Preposition)

13) Write 2 antonyms for each of the following.

a) always

b) acknowledge